

Nittany Lights

Lighting Workshop - 2016

Friday, September 23rd

7:00 pm – Stuckeman Family Building (new architecture building).- Lecture:
“Collaborative Light” Presented by William Kader, Senior Lighting Designer.

Saturday, September 24th

8:30 am – Donuts served for workshop participants between the Nittany Parking Deck and Carpenter Building.

9:00 am – Overview of the event, available equipment, etc. Divide into six teams. Teams will go to their areas, and begin working on a schematic concept.

10:00 am – Everyone back to Nittany Parking Deck for selection of fixtures via a round robin process. Immediately following the teams shall take their equipment back to their areas.

12:00 pm – Break for lunch, served adjacent to Nittany Parking Deck. Teams are encouraged to stop work and talk with one another during this period.

1:00 pm – Mad rush to complete mock-ups.

4:30 pm – All work must be completed, put down equipment, return all unused equipment, tools, materials, etc. Break to get cleaned up and ready for dinner. Table top product displays by sponsors’ will be happening in the Atherton Hotel starting at 5:00pm.

5:45 pm – Dinner will be served at the Atherton Hotel. Sponsor table top displays available.

7:30 pm – Site tour of mock-ups with team presentations

Sunday, September 25th

9:00 am – Clean-up and package all fixtures and equipment for shipping. We will again meet in Nittany Parking Deck